ToolBank USA Appoints Patty Russart CEO

Atlanta (April 23, 2018) – ToolBank USA is pleased to announce the appointment of Patty Russart as Chief Executive Officer to succeed Alan Harrison, effective April 30 2018. Patty is an experienced leader within the ToolBank network, having delivered significant growth within the Atlanta Community ToolBank over the past decade.

“Patty’s track record demonstrates her ability to grow an organization and tackle complex challenges,” stated Charlie Brown, ToolBank USA Board president. “We’re looking forward to her advancing the ToolBank network with support from our affiliates across the country.”

We appreciate the contributions Alan Harrison has provided over the past 18 months and respect his decision to resign for personal reasons and we thank Alan and wish him the best as he moves forward.

Please join us in congratulating and supporting Patty in her new role.

Thank you,

Charlie Brown
ToolBank USA President
